How Many Parts of Speech Are There?

There are 8 parts of speech in English grammar:

- Noun
- Pronoun
- Verb
- Adjective
- Adverb
- Preposition
- Conjunction
- Interjection

These help us understand how words function in a sentence.

1. Noun (Naming Word)

A noun is the name of a person, place, thing, or idea.

Examples:

- Person: teacher, Rahul
- Place: school, Delhi
- Thing: book, table
- Idea: happiness, love

Sentence Example:

Riya is reading a book

2. Pronoun (Replacing Word)

A pronoun is used instead of a noun to avoid repetition.

Examples:

- he, she, it, they, we

Sentence Example:

Riya is reading. She is happy

3. Verb (Action or State)

A verb shows action or state of being.

Examples:

- Action: run, eat, write
- State: is, am, are

Sentence Example:

She is playing

4. Adjective (Describing Word)

An adjective describes a noun or pronoun.

Examples:

- big, small, happy, fast

Sentence Example:

He is a smart boy

5. Adverb (Describing Action)

An adverb describes a verb, adjective, or another adverb.

Examples:

- quickly, slowly, very

Sentence Example:

She runs quickly

6. Preposition (Position Word)

A preposition shows relation of place, time, or direction.

Examples:

- in, on, at, under, between

Sentence Example:

The book is on the table

7. Conjunction (Joining Word)

A conjunction connects words or sentences.

Examples:

- and, but, or, because

Sentence Example:

Ram and Shyam are friends

8. Interjection (Emotion Word)

An interjection shows sudden emotion or feeling.

Examples:

- wow, oh, ouch

Sentence Example:

Wow, that is amazing
